Welcome!

Greetings!

Welcome to Kings High School, home of the Knights. We are so very pleased to once again host you at The Castle and the 2022 MSBA AAAA Championship. At Kings, we know a lot of things we do have an impact on others. Opportunities like hosting a competition of this magnitude bring our entire community together. Our students, parents, staff, custodial department and community partners are thrilled to have this opportunity to show off our facilities and make every visitor feel welcome and special!

Thank you for attending and we wish the best to all the performers that have come together to share their talents today!

Go Knights!

Doug Leist

Principal

Welcome!

On behalf of the entire Kings Local Schools community, we would like to welcome all of the parents, family members and talented performers to the 2022 MSBA AAAA Championships. We look forward to seeing each band display their talents after all of the hours of preparation and practicing throughout this season. In Kings, one of our core beliefs is that we are “stronger together”. We encourage and promote communication, creativity, perseverance through high levels of collaboration. We look forward to seeing each band demonstrate these skills and showcase how they are “stronger together”.

Thank you for visiting our amazing school district and we wish the best of luck to all of the students!
